MEDICAL ALERT TO ALL THE DESCENDENTS OF HARRY DELOS HOWARD & NELETTA ELIDA PETTET!

Just an hour ago, I got off the telephone with a Canadian Wait family member in Toronto. He called me and we [Mother and I] visited for an hour and a-half.

Diabetes has and continues to run rampant in the Wait lineage, Sisson and Amanda had it, and continues in today's generation of Wait's and Allied Families. The type of disease can strike without warning as it did with me and some of our relatives no visible clues. Stress, what we eat, and our life styles can trigger the dormant killer diabetic gene.

I have known from prior conversations with our OZARK Sweet relatives, diabetes likewise has and continues to be a killer disease. Two of our Sweet Cousins in a family of 8 have died from it. One died without knowing he was even ill. He was 26 and about to be married. The autopsy revealed the extent of organ damage. CDC and their medical team has the family under close medical observation.

Therefore, diabetes is no longer a casual possibility for which any of us, should put off being tested on a regular medically approved basis, especially now that I know the gene is in both the Paternal and Maternal lines of the Sweets and Waits.

Remember Gilbert L. Howard, brother Bradford Delos Howard and uncle of Harry Delos Howard? He died at age 44, before they had insulin and the present [5] next generation pills.

In closing, I never dreamed I would find a killer genetic gene in the Sweet and Wait lineages. Instead, I was in search of the genetic Bi-Polar disorder I suffer with. The only place I have a clue, may be Lord Edmund Howard and wife Joyce Culpepper, who had two unnamed sons committed for odd behavioral disorders.

Marshall

The fourth daughter after the mother's eldest sister.

From the Southwest Nebraska
Genealogical Society April 1980"

Somewhere I have a Gemalile/Gemali? Wait genealogy, from ca. 1342 down to ca. 1854?. I stumbled onto the genealogy by accident while researching through LDS Films, in September or October 1998. This film belonged to someone else and I have no idea who it was or the film number. I am not certain if I can relocate it among my 80,000 papers. I never take notes, as I was forced, due to a learning disability to memorize my assignments, what the teachers spoke about, etc.. When I die and if my book is not published, all I know is lost forever. So I've being telling others "Dead Man tell no tales, so I am telling it all---NOW! Bottom line, I'll do what I can, to relocate data.

However, you are probably familar with the enclosed data. The genealogical chart more or less conforms with the 1854? publication. Note: Some of my Pettets/Pettits lived in Louisana or better known at that time as the Oakland Plantation. There is a connection here, but how, I am not certain how to put it all together.Source for Genealogical Chart: Wiatt, Alexander Lloyd. The Waitt Family of Virginia, p. 6. Please note the Welch connection "Anne Wiot a Welch Cousin". Further evidence of the Kent Connection, being my Immigrant Thomas Hayward/Howard-the aged and wife Susanna Downing, both left from Aylesford, Kent Co., England for Boston, Suffolk County, MA then Cambridge, Middlesex County, MA, where their first born son ---[not William as numerous researchers and books claim] Edward Howard married Hannah Esther Hawkins on 07 June 1661. Further some of my Howard's as were the Downings were missionaries when they were in CT and they migrated south. Maybe my side of the Pettits/Pettets who owned Oakland Plantation went as Missionaries.

James
Toy

At the same time among the 15 [UMI] microfiche volumes for genealogies [about 100,000 microfiche] , I stumbled onto a hand drawn genealogical chart for Mary Duell wife of James Toy father of James Dooling Toy and wife Lydia Eckert. I am kicking myself for being out of change and unable to photocopy. It went back 19 generations, from circa 1756. I think it was among the Draper or Livingston Family genealogies.

As mentioned, Mary Prime daughter of the Canadian Prime Minister gave Stoney Island, Ontario, Canada [now Jefferson Co., NY] to the Pettits/Pettets. Jonathan Pettet, M.D. and others all claimed the family migrated from Jamaica, Long Island, NY, to Boston, MA, to NH, back to Long Island and then the family went to Brownville, Jefferson Co., NY [Black River Country], then to Stoney Point and over to Coburg, Vernonville, Haldimand Twsp., Ontario, Canada and not by the known conventional crossing of the Saint Lawrence, at it's shallowest points. Neither did they go by way of Buffalo and around the point. Some of my allied Harriman's and Snow Families did. There was no need with the Pettets, Drapers, Primes, Meridiths, Gulliets and other allied families to go to Buffalo, they had boats and an island. Much of these facts, I learned as a child from my grandparents Harry Delos Howard and wife Neletta Elida Pettet. In fact, my great-grandfather Jonathan Pettet, M.D crossed

My Email concern is that, I have learned what stands up and what fails to pass exacting genealogists, mainly the College of Heraldry, the Board of Certified Lineage Specialist [Worldwide]; The Magna Charta Society and others. Before, I publish my copyrighted and non-published book I need to finish the unknowns on my grandmother Pettet's and Allied lines. I get very nervous when anyone resorts to LDS records and research. There are sneaky but justifiable methods of getting around the pickey genealogist---but it requires triple sets of legal verification for each spouse and sibling, their spouses and offspring.

I have had to purge a lot of prior data and spend a lot of money to find the wills, birth, marriage and death certificates, so as to meet or exceed the big gun genealogist requirements. I searched in places where most people would not think to look. Like military Pension records for one of my Howard's marriage certificates.

Anyway, once your research is in Canada, I've been told, the odds of duplicate records is in one's favor, being the records are also housed at the Museum of London and the National Archives in Scotland. These two places, I found records thought to be destroyed in New England, during the revolution.

I found the following information, which is sometimes on the money, as follows:

The Connecticut Nutmegger, Connecticut Society of Genealogical Inc.; Volume 14, Number 1, June 1981, page 157:

MR. AND MRS. MARSHALL S. HOWARD

Miss Dianne Hill Is Wed To Marshall S. Howard

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall S. Howard are at home in Denver following their wedding at the First Presbyterian Church, Aug. 15 and a wedding trip through the Black Hills and Yellowstone National Park.

The bride is the former Dianne Lyn Hill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marion D. Hill and Howard is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ross V. Howard.

The Rev. Robert Walkley solemnized the 4 p.m. double ring ceremony before an altar adorned with baskets of pink gladiolus and appleblossom carnations.

Mrs. Paul Groesbeck was the wedding organist and accompanied a family friend, Mrs. Carlton Dove, who sang, "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She fall in the center and was topped with the traditional bride and groom ornament. Lighted tapers flanked the cake.

Those serving the refreshments were Mrs. C. W. Livingston of Westminster; Mrs. Stanley Howard, Golden; Mrs. H. H. Strouse, and Mrs. Alan Keimig of Denver; Mrs. Jack Keimig of Casper was in charge of the guest book and Mrs. William Back of Englewood, Colo.; and Mrs. Larry Vincent of Denver assisted at the gift table. Mrs. Henry Yeager of Denver was in charge of the flowers which each of the assistants wore.

A dinner and dancing followed at the Izaak Walton clubhouse for members of the family and the wedding party and out-of-town guests.

wore an A-line gown of silk organza over taffeta. The fitted bodice had a Venise lace yoke with pearl trim, which adorned the wedding ring collar, the Camelot sleeves were held gathered to a wide Venise lace cuff. Her chapel length train was held at the back of the gown with with small bows and the train was accented with Venise lace, pearl and aurora borealis bead center. Her veil of illusion was held in place by a cluster of Venise lace flowers. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and stephanotis.

The maid of honor was Miss Carla L. Livingston of Westminister, Colo., and bridesmaids were Miss Thresa Straub and Mrs. Margaret LeAnne Harper.

They wore gowns of pink peau de soie with an empire waist and the long gathered sleeves of pink nylon organza, were adorned with peau de soie. Their gowns were trimmed with olive green and white lace. For their headpieces they wore matching peau de soie pearl tipped petals attached to a nylon organza bow accented with matching olive green and white lace. They carried cascades of appleblossoms carnations.

Little Miss Carla Jean Dove, was flower girl, and was dresses like the other bride's attendants. She carried a white lace basket filled with rose petals.

Troy Vincent was ringbearer, and carried a satin pillow with the two rings attached.

Mike Beville of Golden was best man for his friend and groomsmen were Bradford Howard and Stanley Howard, brothers of the bridegroom who were also ushers.

A reception was held in the church parlors, where Mrs. Hill greeted the guests wearing a blue crepe dress with matching lace coat and shoes and purse. Her corsage was of pink roses.

For the wedding and reception Mrs. Howard chose a sage green crepe dress with collar and sleeves outlines by clusters of miniature daisies. Her corsage was of yellow roses.

A three tier wedding cake centered the bride's table covered with white lace and was decorated with pink and white bells with a pink wateruated from Central High School with the class of 1970. She also attended private schools in Norman, Okla., and Denver.

Howard attended the Cheyenne Schools and is continuing his education at Randall School in Denver.

BIRTH CERT. of MARSHALL STERLING HOWARD

C999

Sunday January 3, 1999

Dear Fran and George,

Enclosed is data you requested in your December 30, 1998 letter.

Yes, I am a man of many secrets and surprises. The Laramie County Democratic Party years ago, nicknamed me the "Can Do Man"! Because I never do anything the conventional way; I am not afraid to speak my mind and I get done what others fail to do, I achieve the objective/objectives.

By popular choice of the citizens of Laramie County, I was nominated twice from the floor of the Central Committee to be Precinct Committeeman for district 1-4 and twice I ran unopposed, a total of 16 years of volunteer service.

Being the sort people we are, Fran----great hereditary stock, knowing what is civil and morally correct, I compromised these values, by putting the cart ahead of the horse. I was fooling around before the correct Christian point and time, so to speak. I was not out of high school, one year to go before graduation. I was and still remain the only married student ever allowed to complete my 12th year at Randell High School, a private school.

I found myself not only having to guess my way through all my classes, but also having to do all the housework, all the cooking, all the driving, I was run ragged. My in-laws wanted to run our lives. Even with the second son---I'ld had enough and on November 9th, 1972, I was legally divorced.

My parents allowed my ex-wife and two sons to live in the home which they had bought for us, until other arrangements could be made. During this time, her parents and attorneys--- Laramie County DA. snared me into a trap to force me to sign over my sons for adoption.

Among other problems, I found myself charged with breaking and entering into my own home on an invitation from my ex to bring some items for my sons' personal needs.

I was not skilled enough in any field to earn the money which the Judge had ordered for child support.The adoption pressure grew to where I had no choice but to consent to the adoption of my sons by the maternal grandparents, and her parents got my sons.

The Hill's strongly favored the first-born, which still angers me. Also, her parent's tried and failed to turn the boys against me. If it had not been the saving grace and love of my parents, the Hills and my ex would have succeeded.

All children in any family are rightfully entitled to equal love, devotion, guidance, tutoring, pleasant learning explanations why certain behavior is wrong, etc.. No harsh words, no screaming, no abuse, which Dianne and Hills did a lot of.

When Steven was seven years old he was given aspirin by his maternal grandmother; he had just recovered from a bout with chicken pox. Rye Syndrome had scarcely been heard of in those days; that happened to to be the year it begin to be recognized and feared. Although Steven was quickly and correctly diagnosed here, he was airlifted to the Colorado University Medical School where five or six other cases of this rare and terrible disease had already arrived. The disease seriously damaged Steven. He survived but had to take heavy medication to avoid seizures or to control those that would come upon him.

He had to attend special classes and special schools. Just before he was eighteen he ran away and was tragically killed on the railroad tracks about one hundred miles east of Cheyenne. My mother still cannot talk about this tragedy although it happened almost ten years ago--------March 9, 1989. STEVEN OBIT

The Obits for Steven pretty much say it all. However, we will never know if someone enticed him onto the East bound Union Pacific fright train or if he went on his own, without medication. Apparently, he fell off or was pushed off at 70 mile per hour, 2 miles east of Sidney, NE. I,Dale Hill and the Sheriff from Sidney, all had to view his shattered body at the regional trauma Hospital in Scottsbluff. Half his skull exposed, bones in the legs exposed, his boots missing, his belt buckle missing and wallet missing. When I looked into his shattered face, I saw Harry Delos Howard, on the slab. Steven was cremated, against my wishes.

I certainly never want to be cremated. I want a place for family and Historians to pay their respect. I wanted a tombstone to touch, a grave to lay flowers on, in those moments when memories flood in and all anyone can do is go and sit quietly and remember. Families don't have this healing comfort with a box of ashes, in a show case and locked chapel.

This past Christmas [1998], I received the genuine words of love--no anger, bitterness of the past, but true son-to-father love, I have prayed for and silently anguished to hear from Dan. Truly his Christmas card made me feel whole and complete again. All the prayers, all the sacrifices my parents made, etc., caused me to feel I could once again claim Dan as my son. Because of this God-given miracle and the love of Dan's Christian wife Angie, I knew time had come to let you know. Also, time to reestablish his heritage, through membership in the ILSAR. Both sons were NSCAR members.

I got into a situation which was beyond my age and experience, although my parents warned me not to follow that path. I am not as bad as the Waits, just highly self independent and suspicious of in-laws with lawyers and money in their pockets. Also, I respect law enforcement, but I am never afraid to stand up for my Constitutional Rights. I have successfully nominated 8 former Wyoming State Highway Patrol Officers and 8 Judges, county, state and Federal Judges all in one year for some of the first NSSAR Gold Law Enforcement Medals. Since 1988, Officers

[1] Reprensents Catholic Confirmation names.

[2] Reprensents Catholic Confirmation names.

[3] Reprensents Catholic Confirmation names.

[4] I think we may in time conclude that Matthew Howard was instead William Matthew Howard. William did have three wives and all by the first name of Mary. First wife Mary Case married ca. 1687/88; s second Mary Parker married 14 Nov 1723 and third wife was Mary Tallman, married 1739. Again Matthew would represent the Catholic Confirmation name.

Dear Fran,

I am wondering if James Toy born 1800 is not the son of John Toy, son James Toy born 1715?

John Toy was in the Revolutionary War, from N. J.? Or did James Toy born 1715 serve? As Delware records have a James, with a $100.00 bounty for deserting; on grounds of hunger.

More later.

Take Care
Marshall

P.S. When and Where did the Toys arrive, I cannot remember where I put your lineage sheets. If far enough back, I could qualify for Founders & Patriots and if James born 1715 was in the Revolutionary War?

Fran,

Let us try the enclosed.

Lots of problems with Thomas Hayward, wife Susan Downing and son Edward. PAF5 keeps erasing data. Instead, I had to print out in segments. Hope you don't get confused.

I certainly would like to track down, if alive, Margaret Beal, of Lakeland, Florida. Her pedigree charts got tossed in the wrong box.

Hope you have a Happy New Year. Headed to Patterson, CA in February for possibly 2 months. Mother wants to go and finish the Keimig, Jack and allied family book.

Henry Howland of Duxbury, Massachusetts, 1633, His Children and His Grandchildren

By ROBERT S. WAKEFIELD, F.A.S.G., and the late
ROBERT M. SHERMAN, F.A.S.G.

7. Sarah² Howland (Henry¹) was born about 1645 and died at Portsmouth, Rhode Island, on 2 8m [October] 1712, aged about sixty-seven years. Records created at that time identify her as "widow of Robert Dennis of Portsmouth" (a note in another hand, apparently written slightly later, adds: "Her maiden name was Howland").[69] Sarah Howland "of Duxbury" married, "at the house of Joshua Coggeshall in Rhode Island," on 19 9m [November] 1672, to Robert Dennis "of Portsmouth." Dennis, born about 1631, died at Portsmouth on 5 4m [June] 1691, aged "about 60 years."[70]

Robert Dennis was received as an inhabitant of Portsmouth on 16 June 1651, the earliest record found of him. On 25 August 1656, he was identified as a planter of Portsmouth when he purchased twenty acres of land there from Job Hawkins of Boston. On 17 October 1667, at a meeting of "the free inhabittants of the town," Robert was chosen to be one of the petty jurymen. In July 1672, he deeded land for use as a Quaker burying place. From 1673 to 1684, Robert was active in civic affairs as deputy to the Rhode Island General Assembly, member of the Town Council, juryman, and member of various committees.[71] A deed dated there on 12 February 1688/89 involved the transfer of land "bounded by land in Portsmouth now in the possession of Robert Dennis"; and a Rhode Island deed, dated 25 May 1691, shows that Robert bought land in Monmouth, New Jersey, from Jedidiah and Elizabeth Allen of Shrewsbury, New Jersey.[72]

It would seem that Robert might have been married during at least a part of his twenty-one-year stay in Portsmouth, before marrying Sarah Howland. Most especially would this appear likely during the sixteen years after he became a landowner. However, there has been found no record of such a marriage or any children beyond those mentioned in his will (of whom Sarah was the mother). It is, of course, conceivable that he spent a part of the roughly ten years from 1656 to 1667 outside Portsmouth, but no evidence of this has been found. For the present, one is constrained to accept him as a forty-year-old bachelor at the time of his marriage to Sarah.

A claim has been made that this Robert Dennis is one and the same as a man by that name who appears in Yarmouth, Massachusetts, in 1640. The Yarmouth man was included among those able to bear arms in 1643, was propounded a freeman there in 1650, deeded a house and land to Andrew Hallet in 1656, and continued to appear in Plymouth Colony records until 1667. The age at death of Robert of Portsmouth, presuming it is given correctly, puts him about ten years too young to be this Robert of Yarmouth, and there is too much overlapping of activity in the two towns to believe all the records apply to one man. Robert of Yarmouth appears to have spent his later years in New Jersey, dying about 1685.[73]

Subsequently, the will of Robert Dennis "of Portsmouth on Rhode Island" was dated 11 May 1691 and proved 2 July 1691. Saying he was "very ill in body," Dennis devised and bequeathed his estate to his five children. The eldest son Robert, when he turned twenty-one, was to have 150 acres of land that Dennis had bought from his brother-in-law, Jedidiah Allen, in Monmouth County. Son Joseph, when twenty-one, was to have the house and land where the testator dwelled in Portsmouth. Daughters Mary Dennis and Sarah Dennis and son John Dennis, under twenty-one, were also remembered. Wife Sarah was to be the executrix, and Dennis's friends Thomas Cornell and John Anthony were named as overseers.[74]

Sarah outlived her husband by two decades. The will of Sarah Dennis "of Portsmouth on Rhode Island," widow, was dated 26 September 1712 and was attested on 13 October 1712. It names sons Robert, John, and Joseph; daughter Mary, wife of George Lawton; daughter Sarah, widow of Thomas Fish; grandchildren Ruth and John Lawton; and, as executors, son Robert Dennis and son-in-law George Lawton.[75]

Children of Robert and Sarah (Howland) Dennis, all born at Portsmouth, were as follows:[76]

+ 47 i. Mary[3] Dennis; born 22 7m [September] 1673; married George Lawton.
+ 48 ii. Robert Dennis; born 5 9m [November] 1677; married Susanna Briggs.
49 iii. Sarah Dennis; born [31 October] 1679; on 22 3m [May] 1705 there was filed a marriage intention for her and Thomas Fish of Portsmouth, who died before 26 September 1712.
+ 50 iv. John Dennis; born 15 6m [August] 1682; married Ann Brayton.
+ 51 v. Joseph Dennis; born 25 3m [May] 1689; married Sarah Durfee.

8. Joseph[2] Howland (Henry[1]) died at Duxbury on 15 6m [August] 1692.[77] He was "of Duxbury" when, on 4 3m [May] 1683, he married Rebecca Hussey (or Huzzey) at the Hampton, New Hampshire, house of John Hussey.[78] Young Rebecca, the daughter of John by his wife Rebecca (Perkins) Hussey, was born on 10 March 1662. After Joseph's death, she wed at Duxbury, on 20 6m [August] 1695 to one Samuel Collins of Lynn, Massachusetts (who was born at Lynn, apparently, on 19 3m [May] 1659). Rebecca died as a widow (and probably at Lynn) on 4 4m [June] 1739. By her second husband, Rebecca had the following Collins children, born in Lynn between 1696 and 1707: Theodate (twice), Zacheus, Micajah, Elijah (twice), and Eliakim.[79]

Joseph Howland, like his brother Samuel, was chosen a constable; his service commenced at Duxbury on 2 June 1687 and ran for a year.[80] (The strong anti-Quaker feeling had subsided well before that time.) An inventory of Joseph's estate, taken on 30 August 1692, shows that he died in possession of lands in Little Compton, in the Majors Purchase, and in Duxbury. His relict "Rebecka" affirmed the inventory on 20 September 1692, and administration was granted to her on the same day. In an order of division of Joseph's estate, dated 4 April 1693, Rebecca was to have her "thirds" and additional money

"to bring up the three little children of said deceased until they respectively come to the age of 14, viz. one son and two daughters: Jedidiah Howland, Patience, and Lidiah."[81]

Children of Joseph and Rebecca (Hussey) Howland, born at Duxbury, were as follows:[82]

52 i. Daughter; born 10 1m [March] 1684; lived four days.
+ 53 ii. Jedidiah^3 Howland; born 31 6m [August] 1685; married Mary Newberry.
+ 54 iii. Patience Howland; born 30 2m [April] 1687; married William Phillips and Abraham Redwood.
+ 55 iv. Lidiah Howland; born 10 9m [November] 1689; probably married Walter Phillips.

THIRD GENERATION [PARTIAL]

9. Nathaniel^3 Howland (Zoeth,^{2} Henry^1) was born at Dartmouth, Massachusetts, on 1 8m [October] 1657 and died there on 3 March 1723/24.[83] He married before August 1685 to Rose Allen, who appears to have been born at Dartmouth in 10m [December] 1665, the daughter of Joseph and Sarah (Holley) Allen. The will of Joseph, dated 1696 at Dartmouth and attested on 11 October 1704, names both his wife Sarah and his daughter Rose Howland.[84]

On 25 February 1723/24, the sixty-six-year-old Nathaniel Howland made his last will and testament at Dartmouth and then died soon after. Proved on 16 June 1724, the document names his wife Rose, four daughters (Rebeccah, wife of James Russell; Sarah, wife of Timothy Akin; Mary, wife of Peleg Smith; and Content Howland), and three sons (John, James, and George). It appears probable that Rose did not long outlive the drawing of her husband's will. No record is found of her thereafter, and a receipt of 17 September 1725, executed by Nathaniel's children and heirs in favor of their father's executors (James and George Howland), does not mention Rose. Signing the latter document were John Howland, James Russell and wife Rebeccah, Peleg Smith and wife Mary, Weston Briggs and wife Content, and Timothy Akin and wife Sarah.[85]

Children of Nathaniel and Rose (Allen) Howland, all born at Dartmouth, were the following:[86]

56 i. Rebeccah^4 Howland, born 12 6m [August] 1685; died at Dartmouth, 8 November 1727; married there on 21 November 1709 to James Russell.

57 ii. John Howland, born 14 2m [April] 1687; he is probably the husband of Mary Cook (sister of Deborah, who married his brother James), but their marriage is not found in the published vital records.[87]

58 iii. James Howland, born 18 12m [February] 1688/89; died at Shrewsbury, New Jersey, between 13 November and 13 December 1748. He was said to be "of Dartmouth" when he married, at Tiverton, on 25 July 1717, to Deborah Cook of Portsmouth, Rhode Island, daughter of John and Ruth (Shaw) Cook. That marriage earned him a censure on 18 9m [November] 1717, at which time it was stated that James, the son of Nathaniel and Rose, had married out of the Quaker faith.[88] The will of James Howland of Shrewsbury, dated 13 November 1748 and proved 13 December 1748, named his wife Deborah as his executrix—although it appears that she did not serve. On 4 February 1748/49, Cook Howland signed his bond as administrator of the estate. By the terms of John's will, his sons Thomas and James were given the land where they already resided

"to bring up the three little children of said deceased until they respectively come to the age of 14, viz. one son and two daughters: Jedidiah Howland, Rebecca, and Lydia."[31]

Children of Joseph and Rebecca (Hussey) Howland, born at Duxbury, were as follows:[32]

1 i. Daughter, born [illegible] 1684, lived few days.
+ ii. Jedidiah Howland, born 21 6m [August] 1685, married Mary Hathaway.
+ iii. Rebecca Howland, born 26 2m [April] 1687, married William Phillips and Abraham Barnes.
+ iv. Lydia Howland, born 10 9m [November] 1689, probably married Walter Phillips.

THIRD GENERATION [PARTIAL]

9. Nathaniel[3] Howland (Zoeth[2], Henry[1]) was born at Dartmouth, Massachusetts, on 1 8m [October] 1657 and died there on 5 March 1723/24.[33] He married before August 1683 to Rose Allen, who appears to have been born at Dartmouth in 10m [December] 1665, the daughter of Joseph and Sarah (Holley) Allen. The will of Joseph, dated 1698 at Dartmouth and attested on 11 October 1704, names both his wife Sarah and his daughter Rose Howland.[34]

On 25 February 1723/24, the sixty-six-year-old Nathaniel Howland made his last will and testament at Dartmouth and then died soon after. Proved on 16 June 1724, the document names his wife Rose, four daughters (Rebecca, wife of James Russell; Sarah, wife of Timothy Allen; Mary, wife of Peleg Smith; and Content Howland), and three sons (John, James, and George). It appears probable that Rose did not long outlive the drawing of her husband's will. No record is found of her thereafter, and a receipt of 17 September 1725, executed by Nathaniel's children and heirs in favor of their father's executors (James and George Howland), does not mention Rose. Signing the latter document were John Howland, James Russell and wife Rebecca, Peleg Smith and wife Mary, Weston Briggs and wife Content, and Timothy Allen and wife Sarah.[35]

Children of Nathaniel and Rose (Allen) Howland, all born at Dartmouth, were the following:[36]

36 i. Rebecca[4] Howland, born 11 6m [August] 1685; died at Dartmouth [illegible] November 1727; married there on 21 November [illegible] James Russell.
37 ii. John Howland, born 16 2m [April] 1687; he is probably the husband of Mary Cook [illegible] of Dartmouth, who married [illegible] but [illegible] not found in the published vital records.[37]
38 iii. James Howland, born 16 12m [February] 1689/90; died at Dartmouth [illegible] between 12 November and 13 December 1768. He [illegible] "of Dartmouth" when he married, at Tiverton on [illegible], Deborah Cook of Portsmouth, Rhode Island, the daughter of John and Ruth [illegible] Cook. That marriage [illegible] and that James, the son of Nathaniel and Rose, had married out of the Quaker faith.[38] The will of James Howland of Dartmouth, dated 12 November 1768 and proved 13 December 1768, named his wife Deborah as the executrix—although it appears that she did not serve, [illegible] February [illegible] Cook Howland signed his bond as administrator of the estate. By the terms of James's will, his son Thomas [illegible] the land where [illegible] already resided in Dartmouth, and three younger sons (Cook, George, and Charles) were given land in Shrewsbury. Two daughters, Elizabeth and Ruth, also were named.[89]

59 iv. Sarah Howland, born 15 or 16 9m [November] 1690; married Timothy Akin.
60 v. George Howland, born 11 10m [December] 1693.
61 vi. Mary Howland, born 21 or 23 2m [April] 1699; married Peleg Smith.
62 vii. Content Howland, born 20 8m [October] 1702; married Weston Briggs.

10. Benjamin[3] Howland (Zoeth,[2] Henry[1]) was born at Dartmouth on 8 3m [May] 1659 and died there on 12 February 1726/27. It was also at Dartmouth that he married, on 3 April 1684, to Judith Samson,[90] who was neither the daughter nor the granddaughter of the pilgrim Henry Samson, as has been asserted elsewhere. She may have been a daughter of Abraham Sampson and his unknown second wife, whose daughters, if any, are not known. The name Judith did occur in Abraham's family: Abraham's son George named a daughter Judith in 1683; his brother George, who remained in England, married a Judith.[91]

Benjamin died at Dartmouth nearly six years after he made his will. Dated 5 March 1721/22, that instrument was not attested until 21 March 1726/27. Named in it were Benjamin's wife Judith, his three daughters (Abigail, wife of Jonathan Ricketson; Desire Howland; and Lidiah, wife of George Soule), and his two sons (Barnabas and Isaac Howland). The executor was to be Barnabas, with the testator's "loving brother Nicholas Howland" and friend John Russell serving as overseers.[92]

Children of Benjamin and Judith (Samson) Howland, all born at Dartmouth, were the following:[93]

63 i. Abigail[4] Howland, born 30 November 1686. She married before 5 March 1721/22, the date of her father's will, to Jonathan Ricketson.
64 ii. Benjamin Howland, born 16 November 1688; apparently died before 5 March 1721/22 since he was not named in his father's will.
65 iii. Isaac Howland, born 30 January 1694. He was identified as the "son of Benjamin of Dartmouth" when he married, on 19 10m [December] 1717, to Hannah Allen, daughter of Ebenezer Allen of that same town.[94]
66 iv. Desire Howland, born 29 August 1696. She, too, was identified as "daughter of Benjamin" at her wedding on 9 1m [March] 1725/26 to John Lapham, another Dartmouth native, who had been born on 3 10m [December] 1703 to John and Mary (Russell) Lapham.[95]
67 v. Barnabas Howland, born 16 or 23 7m [September] 1699. He was identified as "son of Benjamin of Dartmouth" when he married (1) at Dartmouth, on 30 April 1724, to Rebecca Lapham (born at Dartmouth, 5 8m [October] 1707; daughter of John and Mary Lapham); and (2) also at Dartmouth, on 16 2m [April] 1750, to Penelope Allen, widow of Jedidiah Allen of Dartmouth. At his second marriage, Barnabas was more fully identified as "son of Benjamin and Judith late of Dartmouth."[96]
68 vi. Lydia (Lidiah) Howland, born 10, 11, or 16 8m [October] 1701; married before 21 December 1719, to George Soule, son of William and Hannah.[97]

11. Daniel[3] Howland (Zoeth,[2] Henry[1]) was born at Dartmouth on 1m [March] 1661 and died at Tiverton (then in Massachusetts, now in Rhode Island) before 26 January 1711/12, the date his estate was inventoried. His widow, Mary [—?—] married secondly at Tiverton, on 26 February 1712, to one Samuel Goodspeed.[98] A series of land purchases executed by Daniel in the various places of his residence provides a glimpse into his personal life. He was living in Portsmouth, Rhode Island, in November 1694 and removed to Tiverton by April 1695. A subsequent document, dated January 1699, further identifies him as an innkeeper of Tiverton.[99]

The settlement of Daniel's estate at Tiverton created several useful documents of genealogical value. On 26 11 m [January] 1711/12, his inventory was taken by Joseph Wanton and Robert Dennis; it included housing and lands. His widow attested the inventory the following 5 February, together with the eldest son Daniel Howland. On 14 March 1714/15 John Howland gave a receipt to Daniel Howland, identified as administrator of the estate of his deceased father, Daniel. One week later (21 March 1714/15) an account was filed jointly by Mary Goodspeed, "formerly Mary Howland widow and relict of Lt. Daniel Howland late of Tiverton deceased," and by the son Daniel, both acting as administrators. That same day, Robert Dennis, of Tiverton, posted his bond as the guardian chosen by John and Isaac Howland, minors of the late Daniel. Finally, on 10 August 1736, there appeared before the court Benjamin Howland, a "mariner of Tiverton," to petition for a division of the estate of his father Daniel, who had died intestate.[100]

Children of Daniel and Mary Howland, all born in Tiverton, have been identified as follows:[101]

69 i. Daniel^4 Howland, born 29 May 1694.
70 ii. John Howland, born 29 April 1696.
71 iii. Isaac Howland, born 7 April 1698.
72 iv. Thomas Howland, born 7 June 1701.
73 v. Benjamin Howland, born 23 May 1703.
74 vi. William Howland, born 19 May 1705.
75 vii. Joseph Howland, born 24 November 1708.
76 viii. Mary Howland, born 10 January 1710.

15. Henry^3 Howland (Zoeth,^{2} Henry^1), a twin, was born at Dartmouth on 30 6m [August] 1672. He died between 20 August and 16 September 1729, the dates upon which his will was signed and attested. Twice wed, Henry's first wife was Deborah Briggs, whom he married at Dartmouth on 3 June [or August] 1698.[102] A Dartmouth native also, Deborah had been born on 16 October 1674 to Thomas and Mary (Fisher) Briggs. She died in that same town on 25 January 1712 [presumably 1711/12, this being two months after the delivery of her last child], at which time she was identified as "wife of Henry."[103] The widowered Henry married secondly, at the end of two years of mourning, to Elizabeth Northup, with their union taking place at Dartmouth on 17 February 1713/14. Elizabeth was still living on 20 August 1729, when her husband made his will.[104]

Henry's marital and romantic adventures set him at odds, more than once, with the rigid dictates of his society. On 17 August 1698 there was born a child to Lydia Wilcox, and Henry was declared to be the father. He contributed to the child's support until January 1700/01. Meanwhile, on 9 April 1700, he was fined for committing fornication with his wife Deborah prior to their marriage.[105] Yet a third time, in the wake of his last marriage, Henry was reprimanded by his community. This time, on 15 1m [March] 1714, he was disowned by the Quakers for taking a wife contrary to the advice of Friends and contrary to the good order established among them.[106]

The will of "Henery Howland of Dartmouth, house carpenter," was dated 20 August 1729 and attested the following 16 September. His wife Elizabeth having deserted him, he bequeathed to her only what she took with her when she left. Also named were five sons (Zoeth, Henery, Thomas, Stephen, and William), 4 daughters (Mary; Hannah; Deborah, under 18; and Meribah). Son Henery was to be his executor.[107]

The children born to Henry of his union with Deborah (Briggs) Howland, all born at Dartmouth, were as follows:[108]

77 i. Edward^{4} Howland, born 10 August or 8m [October] 1698; died Dartmouth 9 February 1701. The existence of a death record for one "Edward, son of Henry" and the lack of mention of either Edward or his heirs in Henry's will appear to refute the claim made in Howland History that Edward married and had children.
78 ii. Zoeth Howland, born 2 November or 3 11m [January] 1701.
79 iii. Henery Howland, born 3 April or 3 4m [June] 1703.
80 iv. Mary Howland (or Marcy, as she appears in Dartmouth's published vital records) was born 27 May or 5m [July] 1706.
81 v. Abigail Howland, born 9 May or 9 5m [July] 1708; died July 1708.
82 vi. Thomas Howland, born 6 June or 6 6m [August] 1709.
83 vii. Hannah Howland, born 17 September or 17 9m [November] 1711.

Four children were subsequently born to Henry and Elizabeth (Northup) Howland, all registered at Dartmouth except Meribah. Known detail is as follows:[109]

84 viii. Stephen Howland, born 14 May or 14 5m [July] 1716.
85 ix. Deborah Howland, born 17 March or 9 3m [May] 1717.
86 x. William Howland, born 30 3m [May] 1720; married at Dartmouth, on 29 November 1741, to Johannah Ricketson, at which time he is identified as "son of Henry."
87 xi. Meribah Howland.

17. Nicholas^{3} Howland (Zoeth,^{2} Henry^{1}) was probably born at Dartmouth, where the rest of his siblings were born, although his birth is not in extant records there. He died in that town on 1 2m [April] 1722, having married on 26 October 1697 to Hannah Woodman.[110] Nicholas's wife has been identified as the daughter of John and Hannah (Timberlake) Woodman through an agreement executed 16 June 1713 by the heirs of John Woodman of Little Compton. Mentioned therein were his deceased wife Hannah and his daughter Hannah Howland, wife of Nicholas Howland.[111]

Although no record has been found which specifically states the parentage of Nicholas, he is clearly a son of Zoeth. As previously noted in this study, he is called "my loving brother" in the will of Benjamin (No. 10). In a deed of mortgage dated 13 February 1717, he is further identified as a cordwainer.[112]

Nicholas Howland made his will at Dartmouth on 9 March 1721/22, some three weeks before his death. Attested on 7 May 1722, it names six sons

(Samuel, the eldest; Nicholas, the second eldest; and Joseph, Daniel, Joab, and Benjamin, who were identified as the four youngest). He also cites his daughters by order of birth: Abigell Russell, the eldest; Mary Tucker, second; Rebecca Howland, third; Hannah Howland, under eighteen, fourth; and Edith Howland, under eighteen, fifth. His widow Hannah was to be his executrix. After the proving of the will, on 18 April 1722, an inventory was taken of Nicholas' estate; and receipts for shares of that estate were signed in 1723 by representatives of two of the heirs—Benjamin Russell, on behalf of his wife Abigail; and Joseph Tucker, on behalf of his wife Mary.[113]

The will of the widowed Hannah Howland of Dartmouth, dated 29 1m [March] 1734 and attested 21 May 1739, suggests that one of their children had died in the interval. Only five sons are named (Samuel, Nicholas, Daniel, Job, and Benjamin), along with five daughters (Abigail Russell, Mary Tucker, Rebeccah Sandford, Hannah Wood, and "little daughter Edith"). Nicholas was to be his mother's executor; sons-in-law Benjamin Russell and Joseph Tucker were to oversee Edith during her minority. The estate appears to have been settled some five years later when, on 14 January 1744, Nicholas was given a receipt by Hannah's children and heirs—Samuel, Daniel, Job, and Benjamin Howland; Benjamin Russell (for wife Abigail Howland); William Wood (for wife Hannah Howland); Joseph Tucker (for wife Mary Howland); William Sanford (for wife Rebekah [sic] Howland); and Daniel Russell (for wife Edith Howland).[114]

The children of Nicholas and Hannah (Woodman) Howland, all of whose births are recorded in the Dartmouth vital records with the exception of Edith, were as follows:[115]

88 i. Abigail^4 Howland, born 3 September 1698; died at Dartmouth on 14 May 1772. She was identified as the "dau. of Nicholas dec. of Dartmouth" when she married in that town, on 22 December 1720. Her husband, Benjamin Russell, had been born at Dartmouth on 17 March 1690/91, to the marriage of Joseph and Elizabeth (Fobes) Russell. Benjamin died at Dartmouth on 31 October 1772, aged eighty-two.

89 ii. Mary Howland, born 21 July 1700; married at Dartmouth, 22 December 1720, to Joseph Tucker.

90 iii. Rebeccah Howland, born 9 or 19 February 1701/02.[116] She married at August 1709, as the son of William and Hope (Sisson) Sanford. Rebeccah was dead by 1750, at which time William remarried at Little Compton to Hannah (Woodman) Hall. Four children were born to the marriage of William and Rebeccah.[117]

91 iv. Samuel Howland, born 2 or 20 February 1703 or 1703/04; married (1) at Dartmouth, 28 9m [November] 1723 (at which time he was identified as "son of Nicholas dec. of Dartmouth"), to Sarah Soul (born at Dartmouth on 8 November 1703), daughter of the deceased William Soul by his wife Hannah. Samuel married (2) at Dartmouth, 28 April 1748, to Ruth Devol, who had been born at Dartmouth on 14 March 1719, to the marriage of Jeremiah and Sarah (Allen) Devol of Rochester.[118]

92 v. Nicholas Howland, born 13 May 1706; married at Dartmouth, 25 1m [March] 1736, to Zerviah Russell, who had been born 24 5m [July] 1715 to John and Rebeckah Russell of Dartmouth. Nicholas is identified in his marriage record as "son of Nicholas dec. and Hannah of Dartmouth."[119]

93 vi. Hannah Howland, born 10 July 1708; married at Dartmouth, as "Hannah, Jr.," on 10 September 1738, to William Wood. Both were said to be "of Dartmouth" at the time of the marriage.[120]

94 vii. Joseph Howland, born 24 August 1710; died 2 7m [September] 1726.[121]

95 viii. Daniel Howland, born 20 August 1712; married (1) at Dartmouth, on 2 2m [April] 1741, as "son of Nicholas and Hannah dec." His wife was Mary Slocum, "daughter of Eleazer deceased of Dartmouth." According to vital records of Dartmouth, Mary had been born there on 29 September 1721, to Eleazer and Deborah (Smith) Slocum. After Mary's death on 14 June 1742, Daniel married (2) on 13 July 1746, also at Dartmouth, to Ede Porter of that town.[122]

96 ix. Job Howland (called Joab in his father's will), born 26 July 1714.

97 x. Benjamin Howland, born at Dartmouth, 30 September 1716; still living on 8 November 1737.[123]

98 xi. Edith Howland; married at Dartmouth, 3 September 1740, to Daniel Russell, son of John and Rebekah. Edith died at Dartmouth on 2 December 1747.[124]

"THE HOWARDS OF LEEEDS COUNTY, by Howard Morton Brown

Matthew Howard, of Albany County, New York, served in the Revolutionary War in General Burgoyne's army as an ensign in a corps of rangers mustered in 1777, under Captain Samuel McKay. After the war he came to the new Upper St. Lawerance settlement in Brockville in Elizabethtown township where he remained.

Some particulars have been gathered regarding his six sons, once well known in Eastern Ontario's Brockville district. They were Stephen (1762-1828), John (captain living Leeds township in 1830), Dyer (town clerk, died before 1829), Peter (M.D., 1772-1843), M.L.A. for Leeds County) and two younger sons William (1780-1858) and Edward (major, 1783-1866). both also of Elizabeth municipal administrations of their pioneer area in the offices assessor and tax collector and township clerk. Their main place of settlement was on the road between Brockville and Lyn long known as the Howard Road. The sixty gravestones of the Howard Cemetery there include those of Howard, Billings and Kilbournes, among others.

Matthew Howard, Esquire, was one of the earliest captains in the Leeds County militia. He died in 1820's his will dated January 18, 1819, being probated at Brockville, October 1, 1824. In 1805, in which year he was the tax collector for Elizabethtown, he had received 2,235 acres of land there and in Crosby township, including two thousand acres granted him by reason of his war time military rank and service.

SONS OF CAPTAIN MATTHEW HOWARD

Stephen Howard, born Albany County in 1762, died in Leeds County, Upper Canada, in 1828. With his brothers John and Dyer he came from their former home area to Chambly, Quebec, in 1781, apparently after their father had escaped from his confinement as a war prisoner. (In Bennington jail in 1781, as verified by others present, Matthew was threatened with hanging by being hung up three times, because he would not give information about the Royal Army.) The three brothers were employed at the Crown-operated sawmill in Chambly until 1785, before coming to occupy their land grants in Upper Canada. Stephen who was the eldest was the town clerk of Elizabethtown township for years including 1803 and 1810. Earlier in 1797, and perhaps in other years, he served as of the two assessors chosen annually by township taxpayers to determine owners land values for tax purpose.

John Howard, was living in Leeds township in 1830, served in the engineers department at St. Johns, Quebec, in 1782 under Lt. Hawkins. He was granted land in Elizabethtown and Wolford townships. In 17999 hew a municipal assessors of Elizabethtown, succeeding Jonah Brown in that office. In the 2nd, Regiment of Leeds Militia he was commissioned December 15, 1807, as a captain. He removed to Leeds township in 1811. His son James B. a carpenter, served in the Leeds Militia in the war of 1812, and married in October 1824, Sally, daughter of Adoniram Burritt of Augusta.

Dyer Howard, the third of the three elder sons of Matthew settled at Elizabethtown on land near his brothers and near Tincap. He was the town clerk of that leading township of the district in years including 1801 and 1802, and was the quartermaster of Colonel Joel Stone's regiment of Leeds militia. Dyer Howard and Jonah Brown (1767-1851, son of Captain Hezekiah) were their township's assessor in 1805. His son Tilton Howard, after his father's death, removed in the early 1830's from

Elizabethtwon to Raleigh township, Kent County.

Peter Howard, a once prominent and now rarely recalled public figure of the formative years of Eastern Ontario's present city of Brockville, was the fourth of Captiain Matthew Howard's six son who became pioneer settlers there. Born Albany County, New York May 21, 1772, he came with his parents to Elizabethtown township after the Revolution, and remained a resident of Leeds County, until his death on November 24, 1843. He was the member of the Upper Canada Legislative Assembly for sixteen years, from 1804 to 1820, and one of the province's earliest medical doctors, practicing in the Athens area of Yonge township and later at Brockville.

Peter Howard was the township clerk of Elizabethtown for years including 1797 and 1800. When in 1801 his elder brother Stephen held one of the two distillery licences granted for that year in the Johnstown District, Peter Howard held a tavern licence and was recorded as making dutiable imports including seventy gallons of Jamaica rum. He acquired land in Leeds and Greenville Counties in Elizabethtown, Bastard, Wolford and Yonge township. Establishing his farm residence in Yonge, he supported the opening of a grain milling business there in 1815 in partnership with Jonah Brown. The millsite, south of Athens, was known as the Howard and Brown Mills, and later as Beale's Mills.

Dr. Peter Howard in 1804 succedded Brockville founder William Buell, senior, as the Legislative Assembly member for Leeds County. He held the Leeds seat continuously through the terms of four Parliaments, voting generally with the Reformers. When Leeds in 1820 by reason of increased population became a two-seat constituency he withdrew and was followed in office by the two members Charles Jones and Livius P. Sherwood. They both were supporters of the Ministerial party., commonly referred to by its opponents as the party of the Family Compact. Sixteen years later in the deteriorating political situation of 1836, Dr. Peter Howard, at convention held at Brockville, after the 1836 Upper Canada election was chosen to support again the rising forces of representative government as president of the newly reorganized Johnstown District Reform Society, with officers including Ephraim Dunham, James Buell and John Booth. (William Buell Richards, M.L.A. for Leeds, 1848 to 1853 later became Sir William and was the first Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Canada.)

Dr. Peter Howard's wife Sarah was a sister of Captain Benjamin Ruggles Munsel of Yonge township. One of their sisters was Mary Munsell, wife of Jonathan Mills Church and mother of a family including Basil Rorison Church, M.D., M.L.A., of Merrickville, Ontario, and Dr. Peter Howard Church of Aylmer, Quebec. The Munsells when children were brought to Upper Cananda in 1784 afte their father Moses had been killed by American rebels while the family was on its way with a party of men to Lower Canada. Their mother on arriving died there in 1780. Sons of Dr. Peter Howard in addition to Matthew Munsell Howard, M.L.A., appear to have included Dr. William W. Howard, Dr. Alpheaus R. Howard, Peter T. Howard and Brock M. Howard, who are later mentioned.

William Howard, born in Albany County, in March 1780, was the fifth of six sons surviving their father Captain Matthew Howard. William became a farmer on part of his father's land near Lyn. He was followed there as a farmer by his son William Henry (1826-1893), and by William Henry's son Bruce L. Howard (1856-1930). William Howard senior lived to age 78, dying November 11, 1858, after surviving his wife Charlotte by only some three months.

Edward Howard, youngest of Captain Matthew Howard's six married sons was born in 1783 after his parent's arrival in Lower Canada. A surviving census report by him gives an intimate of his tribulations as the enumerator for the north half of Elizabethtown township under severe weather conditions in January and February of 1852. He became a farmer on part of the original Howard land (concession 3 lot 21) in Elizabethtown, and a major in the Leeds militia. His children included three married daughters, Jane Ann Wright, Catherine Cook Ellerbeck and Frances A. McKay. A widower for over fifteen years, Major Edward Howard died April 20, 1866, at his Howard Road farm at age 83.

SONS OF DOCTOR PETER HOWARD

Dr. Peter Howard's eldest son was MATTHEW MUNSEL HOWARD (1794-1879). He became the miller of the Howard and Brown Mills in Yong, following Jonah Brown and Jonah's son James Brown

(1794-1874). When parliamentary elections in Upper Canada were made necessary in 1830 by the death of George III, the two Reform candidates chosen to contest the two Leeds County seats were Matthew Munsel Howard and William Buell junior, publisher of the Brockville weekly Recorder and son of Brockville pioneer land owner. They were both elected to the Legislative Assembly over their opponents Henry Sherwood and Ogla Robert Gowan, the latter Buell and Howard sought re-election in ensuing elections of October, 1834, and June, 1836, and in March in a March 1835, byelection, in each of which they were defeated or forced to withdraw by orgnized violence, known as the Beverley Riots, directed against their supporters.

Matthew Munsel Howard removed from Yonge township in the 1840's to become a farmer in the Howard family area between Brockville and Lyn. His wife Harriet Nichols died there not long before hime, in May 1878. At his death at age 85 on September 6, 1879, his childrenmarried and living nearby included Hiram E. (1821-1898), Albert (1826-1888), and Harriet Amelia (1827-1902), wife of Benjamin Case Brown.

BROCK M. HOWARD was Dr. Peter Howard's youngest son. Circumstances of his accidential death were reported in some detail in the Brockville Recorder in December 1828, when on Saturday, the 20th instant, Brock M. Howard, aged fifteen yeas, son of Peter Howard, Esquire, was unfortunately drowned by falling through the ice on the mill pond belonging to Howard and Brown Mills in Yonge.

PETER T. HOWARD (1808-1898), the next youngest and longest lived son of Dr. Peter Howard, M.L.A., remained on his father's farm land at Beale's Mills, the former Howard & Brown Mills, in Yonge township south of Athens. He was succeeded as a farmer there by his son Eugene E. (born December 30, 1847, and married Eliza Ann Wood), then next by Eugene's son Stanley Taylor Howard (1885-1958), and thereafter by Stanley's son Ronald. Brothers of Stanley T. Howard preecessing him were Charles B. Howard and Dr. C.A. Howard (M.D., Queen's, 1912).

DR. WILLIAM W. HOWARD (1810-1863) and DR. ALPHEUS R. HOWARD (1803-1879) both were early medical doctors of the central district of Leeds County formerly served by Dr. Peter Howard. William W. Howard, physician and surgeon, died at age 61, February 18, 1863, at his home near Soperton, survived by his wife Polly. She later lived with Walter L. Casson and his wife Ann E., at Sperton. Dr. William W. Howard also served in his area as a magistrat.

DR. ALPHEUS R. HOWARD and his wife Theodota lived in Landsdown township (concession 12, lot 10) between Soperton and Lyndhurst. Their children included Diana (1831-1863), Napolean B. (1837-1912), Mary (born c1839) and Amelia (1844-1918, wife of William Henry Thomas). A cemetery known as the Pine Hill Cemetery where a number of Howards are buried, located on Highway 42 between Sperton and Delta, was opened in 1894 on land provided by Napolean B. Howard. One of this cemetery's mounmentts may serve as a final note of the considerable number of medical doctors who were among the nenteenth century descendants of the Leeds County pioneer legislator and medical practitioner Peter Howard. Its a Peter T. Howard family monument of the 1890's, which is inscribed as been erected by Feonora Howard, M.D., whenof Tientsin, China.

(This account is provided as brief revised version of Mrs. Brown's earlier notes titled HOWARD REFORMERS OF LEEDS COUNTY and THE MATTHEW HOWARD FAMILY, A PRELIMINARY LISTING, copies of which are available in the Ottawa Branch Library. Main sources have been land pettitions, census rolls, registry office data found by Frances C. Judson of Brockville, legislative assembly journals, cemetery inscriptions recordings, farm directories and Brockville, newspapers.

Dr. Howard's Ancestry

Editor, Recorder and Times:

Sir,-I have read with interest in your paper and others, various accounts of the noble life and works of the late Dr. Leonara Howard King, who died recently in China.

When she last visited the homeland, I had the pleasurer of meeting and visiting with her at some length. One could scarcely fail to be impressed with her personality and a character beautified by a life of earnest endeavor.

From an interest I have in her and her family, I wish to take issue with her biographer of July 9th (Recorder and Times) who in his zeal to extol her excellencies made a serious faux pas. I refer to the statement She came of a comparatively inconspicuous family, etc.

To one who prided her self in her ancestry as she did, such a statement would scarcely be considered fitting. From my knowledge of the ancestry of this lady, as well as other prominent families in Canada, I am prepared to speak with authority. So far as her immidate family is concerned, it was inconspicuous as most good people were at that time. Nothing but porch-climbers and military officals were conspicuous in those days.

Her family descended from English nobility on her father's side, which cannot be questioned as an examination of heraldic records will show. There is a history of her family from the year 1342 down to her grandfather Dr. Peter Howard. Her great grandfather held a baronetcy to which her grandfather, Dr. Peter Howard, and her father were legitimate successors, which in America they never tried to establish, although Sir John Colborne in a letter to her father expressed a wish to negotiate the claim...."

OBITUARY.

Gilbert L. Howard was born in Washburn, Ill., January 15, 1858, and died in Tobias, ~~Neb.~~ Nov, 4, 1903 at age of 44 years 11 months and 19 days. At the age of 18 years he professed faith in Christ and united with the Baptist church of Chenoa, Ill. In 1883 he was united in marriage to Frances M. Hayes, daughter of L. C. Hays of Chenoa, Ill. Two children were born to them, Jessie June and Luther A. In 1891 Mr. Howard and Family moved to Ohiowa, Neb., at which place he lived nine years, being engaged in the lumber business. The past three years he was in the same business at Byron, Neb. He was an industrious and successful business man, a loving father and devoted husband. His high Christian character was recognized by all. In testimoney of this, one He lived one of the cleanest and purest lives of any man I ever knew, and if any one ever left this world for a better one, he surely did. X

Deceased was aafflicted with that dread malady, diabetes. He fully realized that no medical skill could cure him, yet he never complained nor murmered, always trusting in The Great Physician who health all our diseases, and Who loves us even while he chastens us. Mr. Howard leaves to mourn his loss, a widow and two children, Jessie June and Luther, an aged mother, Mrs. E. Howard, and one brother, B. D. Howard, with whom he spent the closing weeks of his life, and at whose home the funeral services were conducted Wednesday at 10 a.m., by Rev. Amos Weaver, pastor of the Baptist church Tobias; text II Corinthians 1-3-7. Scripture reading, a part of the fourteenth chapter of St. John.

The bereaved family wish to express their sincere graditude to the many friends who assisted in the last sad rites of their loved one."

"Lusk Free Lance, Lusk, Niobrara County, Wyoming, Thursday June 25, 1947 [front page].

Mrs. Agatha Pielstick Claimed at Age 83; Resident of Jireh Community Since 1910; Final Rites Held Sunday:

Concluding rites were held at 2:30 p.m. Sunday, June 22nd, in the Manville church for the late Mrs. Agatha D. Pielstick, with Rev. Edmund Nutting of Manville, offictating.

The church was filled to capacity with her admirring friends who had gathered to pay their final respects. Two vocal duets Ivory Palaces and Alone were sung by Mrs. Beryl Fullerton and Mrs. Floyd Alexander with piano accompanment by Mrs. Emma Richardson.

The remins were laid to rest in the Manville cemetery where brief graveside services were held. Pallbearers were Oscar Alexander, Ab DeCastro, Curtis Baughn, O.M. Rasmussen and Beryl Fullerton.

Out-of-town relatives attnding last services were Mr. and Mrs. Russell Pielstick of Omaha, Nebr., the former son of the deceased.

AGATHA D. PIELSTICK

Agatha Dlla Howard was born in Fairbury, Illinois May 11, 1864, the eldest child of Rebbecca and Bradford Howard. While still very young, she moved with her parents to Washburn, Illinois. It was there that she confessed her faith in Christ and at the early age of eight years was baptized and united in the Baptist church. Through the years she has remained faithful to her belief and found courage and strength to help her face life---with all its obstacles---cheerfully and enthusiatsically.

Following the trend of the day to-Go West-the family migrated to Southern Nebraska when Agatha was a young lady. Here in the year 1881 she was united in marriage to George J. Pielstick. They established their home in Fairfield, Nebraska, where Mr. Pielstick was in business. To this union were born eight children, Charles, Bertha, Luhu, Saidie, Della, Sidney, Howard and Russell. Seven grew to adulthood, Bertha having died in infancy.

Upon the death of her husband in 1904, Mrs. Pielstick was left to rear here family by herself. In 1910 with pioneering spirt still prevalent she came to Wyoming and took up a homestead south of Jireh. Since that time, with the exception of a few years spent with her children in different places she has made her home her. In 1932 her son Charles came from Omaha, Nebraska, to take up residence with her mother. For a number of years dueing the expansion of the Lance Creek oil fields she clerked in [page 10] Manorgan's store and later owned and operated her own millnery and dress making shop.

Suffering from a paralytic stroke which occured about seven years ago she was forced to give up many activities that she enjoyed so much, but regardless of the handicap she lived zealously, always hoping for a complete recovery. Last fall she was threatened with pneumonia and was moved to Lusk where she could be under the doctor's care. Although she recovered from this attack , she never gained sufficient strength to return home. During the past month she gradually became weaker until the end came a 9:30 p.m. June 19th, having attained the age of 83 years, 1 month and 8 days.

It can be said of her that she was never known to complain of her portion; she never lost interest in people; she was keenly aware of her surroundings; and inspite of her years and her suffering she mentally aler. Her sweet disposition and unselfish nature endeared her to many people.

She leaves to mourn her passing four sons, Charles H. of Manville, Sindney of Washington, D.C.; Howard of Hollywood, Calif.; and Russell of Omaha, Nebr.; and one daughter Mrs. Neil Hart of Hollywood, Calif. Two other daughters Della and Sedie, preceeded her in death. She also leaves a sister Mrs. Jennie Baughn and a brother, Harry D. Howard, both Manville, Wyoming; seven grandchildren, and one great grandchild, besides many other relatives and friends."

He died on 26 Aug 1964 in At home, Manville, Niobrara County, Wyoming. He was buried in Dellview Cemetery, Manville, Niobrara County, Wyoming.

"Harry Howard Services Held In Manville Sat.

Funeral services for Harry D. Howard, 90, long-time resident of Manville, were held Saturday at 2:00 p. m, from the Manville Community Church with J. Wesley Libb officating. Burial was in the Manville Cemetery.

Mr. Howard died at his home in Manville suddenly last Wednesday morning. He had not previously been ill.

The Rev. Ed Poser and Mrs. J. W. Libb sang Sweet Will of God and It Is Well With My Soul. They were accompanied with Mrs. Con Showalter.

Pallbearers were: Louis Bowen, Al Knudsen, Alvin Alexander, Paul Sullivan, Art Rathbun and Marion Rasmussen.

Honorary pallbearers were: Walter Vanhorn, Lee Stoddard, Orville Dryer and Zeb Ward.

Harry Delos Howard was at Chenoa, Ill December 31, 1873 the son of Bradford and Rebecca Howard. At an early age he moved with his parents to Nebraska where he grew to manhood. September 18, 1901 he and Miss Neletta Elida Pettet were married at her home in Chicago. They made their home in Lusk following the wedding and lived here until 1904 when they moved back to Nebraska, first to Fairfield and later to Atkinson.

In 1918 the family returned Wyoming and have lived at Manville since that time. As a young man he joined the Baptist Church and at time of his death was a member of the Manville Community Church. For a number of years he taught music and directed choirs in addition to operating his jewelry business. He kept constantly at work at his trade until a few days before his death. His favorite pastime was playing checkers and his subtle humor and his gentle nature made him a favorite in the community. He is survived by his wife, Neletta, three daughters, Mrs. Murrin Keenan of Pine Bluffs, Mrs. Emma Richardson of Manville and Mrs. A. F. DeCastro of Lusk; two sons, Ross Howard of Cheyenne and Robert Howard of Redlands, Calif.; 13 grandchildren and one-great-grandchild."

Obit from Lusk Herald, Lusk, WY, written by Aunt Edna. Also, I was feeling quite ill prior to grandpa's death, so dad [Ross] and I returned to Cheyenne. Grandpa, passed away ten minutes after we left Manville.

I once asked dad [Ross] how grandpa [Harry] met Neletta. Harry was sitting on the porch of his parents home in Tobias, Nebraska, when a young and quite young school teacher approached Bradford and Rebecca's front porch, unbeknown to Harry, this young school teacher was renting a room at his parents home. From that moment true love started and ended with 63 plus years of marriage.

> I had gone durning the early eveningto the Howard's house to pay Mr. Howard for the violin which I had bought earlier in the year the final payment. As I walked back on the graveled street I was just passing the church when a car came from the opposite direction. It slowed down. stopped and I recognized Emma who called out a greeting and then introduced me to the young man who was driving, her brother Ross whom I had heard of but never saw before.
> Then I started out again on my way to the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Lee.
> I had gone only a half block or so when the pickup was there beside me, and Ross jumped out to offer me a ride home. It was only a little more than a block away, but I accepted the offer, and it wasn't long after that encounter that the same car was appearing quite offen at the Lee's Home."

"THE HOWARDS OF LEEEDS COUNTY, by Howard Morton Brown

Matthew Howard, of Albany County, New York, served in the Revolutionary War in General Burgoyne's army as an ensign in a corps of rangers mustered in 1777, under Captain Samuel McKay. After the war he came to the new Upper St. Lawerance settlement in Brockville in Elizabethtown township where he remained.

Some particulars have been gathered regarding his six sons, once well known in Eastern Ontario's Brockville district. They were Stephen (1762-1828), John (captain living Leeds township in 1830), Dyer (town clerk, died before 1829), Peter (M.D., 1772-1843), M.L.A. for Leeds County) and two younger sons William (1780-1858) and Edward (major, 1783-1866). both also of Elizabeth municipal administrations of their pioneer area in the offices assessor and tax collector and township clerk. Their main place of settlement was on the road between Brockville and Lyn long known as the Howard Road. The sixty gravestones of the Howard Cemetery there include those of Howard, Billings and Kilbournes, among others.

Matthew Howard, Esquire, was one of the earliest captains in the Leeds County militia. He died in 1820's his will dated January 18, 1819, being probated at Brockville, October 1, 1824. In 1805, in which year he was the tax collector for Elizabethtown, he had received 2,235 acres of land there and in Crosby township, including two thousand acres granted him by reason of his war time military rank and service.

SONS OF CAPTAIN MATTHEW HOWARD

N

Stephen Howard, born Albany County in 1762, died in Leeds County, Upper Canada, in 1828. With his brothers John and Dyer he came from their former home area to Chambly, Quebec, in 1781, apparently after their father had escaped from his confinement as a war prisoner. (In Bennington jail in 1781, as verified by others present, Matthew was threatened with hanging by being hung up three times, because he would not give information about the Royal Army.) The three brothers were employed at the Crown-operated sawmill in Chambly until 1785, before coming to occupy their land grants in Upper Canada. Stephen who was the eldest was the town clerk of Elizabethtown township for years including 1803 and 1810. Earlier in 1797, and perhaps in other years, he served as of the two assessors chosen annually by township taxpayers to determine owners land values for tax purpose.

John Howard, was living in Leeds township in 1830, served in the engineers department at St. Johns, Quebec, in 1782 under Lt. Hawkins. He was granted land in Elizabethtown and Wolford townships. In 17999 hew a municipal assessors of Elizabethtown, succeeding Jonah Brown in that office. In the 2nd, Regiment of Leeds Militia he was commissioned December 15, 1807, as a captain. He removed to Leeds township in 1811. His son James B. a carpenter, served in the Leeds Militia in the war of 1812, and married in October 1824, Sally, daughter of Adoniram Burritt of Augusta.

Dyer Howard, the third of the three elder sons of Matthew settled at Elizabethtown on land near his brothers and near Tincap. He was the town clerk of that leading township of the district in years including 1801 and 1802, and was the quartermaster of Colonel Joel Stone's regiment of Leeds militia. Dyer Howard and Jonah Brown (1767-1851, son of Captain Hezekiah) were their township's assessor in 1805. His son Tilton Howard, after his father's death, removed in the early 1830's from

Elizabethtwon to Raleigh township, Kent County.

Peter Howard, a once prominent and now rarely recalled public figure of the formative years of Eastern Ontario's present city of Brockville, was the fourth of Captiain Matthew Howard's six son who became pioneer settlers there. Born Albany County, New York May 21, 1772, he came with his parents to Elizabethtown township after the Revolution, and remained a resident of Leeds County, until his death on November 24, 1843. He was the member of the Upper Canada Legislative Assembly for sixteen years, from 1804 to 1820, and one of the province's earliest medical doctors, practicing in the Athens area of Yonge township and later at Brockville.

Peter Howard was the township clerk of Elizabethtown for years including 1797 and 1800. When in 1801 his elder brother Stephen held one of the two distillery licences granted for that year in the Johnstown District, Peter Howard held a tavern licence and was recorded as making dutiable imports including seventy gallons of Jamaica rum. He acquired land in Leeds and Greenville Counties in Elizabethtown, Bastard, Wolford and Yonge township. Establishing his farm residence in Yonge, he supported the opening of a grain milling business there in 1815 in partnership with Jonah Brown. The millsite, south of Athens, was known as the Howard and Brown Mills, and later as Beale's Mills.

Dr. Peter Howard in 1804 succedded Brockville founder William Buell, senior, as the Legislative Assembly member for Leeds County. He held the Leeds seat continuously through the terms of four Parliaments, voting generally with the Reformers. When Leeds in 1820 by reason of increased population became a two-seat constituency he withdrew and was followed in office by the two members Charles Jones and Livius P. Sherwood. They both were supporters of the Ministerial party., commonly referred to by its opponents as the party of the Family Compact. Sixteen years later in the deteriorating political situation of 1836, Dr. Peter Howard, at convention held at Brockville, after the 1836 Upper Canada election was chosen to support again the rising forces of representative government as president of the newly reorganized Johnstown District Reform Society, with officers including Ephraim Dunham, James Buell and John Booth. (William Buell Richards, M.L.A. for Leeds, 1848 to 1853 later became Sir William and was the first Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Canada.)

Dr. Peter Howard's wife Sarah was a sister of Captain Benjamin Ruggles Munsel of Yonge township. One of their sisters was Mary Munsell, wife of Jonathan Mills Church and mother of a family including Basil Rorison Church, M.D., M.L.A., of Merrickville, Ontario, and Dr. Peter Howard Church of Aylmer, Quebec. The Munsells when children were brought to Upper Cananda in 1784 afte their father Moses had been killed by American rebels while the family was on its way with a party of men to Lower Canada. Their mother on arriving died there in 1780. Sons of Dr. Peter Howard in addition to Matthew Munsell Howard, M.L.A., appear to have included Dr. William W. Howard, Dr. Alpheaus R. Howard, Peter T. Howard and Brock M. Howard, who are later mentioned.

William Howard, born in Albany County, in March 1780, was the fifth of six sons surviving their father Captain Matthew Howard. William became a farmer on part of his father's land near Lyn. He was followed there as a farmer by his son William Henry (1826-1893), and by William Henry's son Bruce L. Howard (1856-1930). William Howard senior lived to age 78, dying November 11, 1858, after surviving his wife Charlotte by only some three months.

Edward Howard, youngest of Captain Matthew Howard's six married sons was born in 1783 after his parent's arrival in Lower Canada. A surviving census report by him gives an intimate of his tribulations as the enumerator for the north half of Elizabethtown township under severe weather conditions in January and February of 1852. He became a farmer on part of the original Howard land (concession 3 lot 21) in Elizabethtown, and a major in the Leeds militia. His children included three married daughters, Jane Ann Wright, Catherine Cook Ellerbeck and Frances A. McKay. A widower for over fifteen years, Major Edward Howard died April 20, 1866, at his Howard Road farm at age 83.

SONS OF DOCTOR PETER HOWARD

Dr. Peter Howard's eldest son was MATTHEW MUNSEL HOWARD (1794-1879). He became the miller of the Howard and Brown Mills in Yong, following Jonah Brown and Jonah's son James Brown

(1794-1874). When parliamentary elections in Upper Canada were made necessary in 1830 by the death of George III, the two Reform candidates chosen to contest the two Leeds County seats were Matthew Munsel Howard and William Buell junior, publisher of the Brockville weekly Recorder and son of Brockville pioneer land owner. They were both elected to the Legislative Assembly over their opponents Henry Sherwood and Ogla Robert Gowan, the latter Buell and Howard sought re-election in ensuing elections of October, 1834, and June, 1836, and in March in a March 1835, byelection, in each of which they were defeated or forced to withdraw by orgnized violence, known as the Beverley Riots, directed against their supporters.

Matthew Munsel Howard removed from Yonge township in the 1840's to become a farmer in the Howard family area between Brockville and Lyn. His wife Harriet Nichols died there not long before hime, in May 1878. At his death at age 85 on September 6, 1879, his childrenmarried and living nearby included Hiram E. (1821-1898), Albert (1826-1888), and Harriet Amelia (1827-1902), wife of Benjamin Case Brown.

BROCK M. HOWARD was Dr. Peter Howard's youngest son. Circumstances of his accidential death were reported in some detail in the Brockville Recorder in December 1828, when on Saturday, the 20th instant, Brock M. Howard, aged fifteen yeas, son of Peter Howard, Esquire, was unfortunately drowned by falling through the ice on the mill pond belonging to Howard and Brown Mills in Yonge.

PETER T. HOWARD (1808-1898), the next youngest and longest lived son of Dr. Peter Howard, M.L.A., remained on his father's farm land at Beale's Mills, the former Howard & Brown Mills, in Yonge township south of Athens. He was succeeded as a farmer there by his son Eugene E. (born December 30, 1847, and married Eliza Ann Wood), then next by Eugene's son Stanley Taylor Howard (1885-1958), and thereafter by Stanley's son Ronald. Brothers of Stanley T. Howard preecessing him were Charles B. Howard and Dr. C.A. Howard (M.D., Queen's, 1912).

DR. WILLIAM W. HOWARD (1810-1863) and DR. ALPHEUS R. HOWARD (1803-1879) both were early medical doctors of the central district of Leeds County formerly served by Dr. Peter Howard. William W. Howard, physician and surgeon, died at age 61, February 18, 1863, at his home near Soperton, survived by his wife Polly. She later lived with Walter L. Casson and his wife Ann E., at Sperton. Dr. William W. Howard also served in his area as a magistrat.

DR. ALPHEUS R. HOWARD and his wife Theodota lived in Landsdown township (concession 12, lot 10) between Soperton and Lyndhurst. Their children included Diana (1831-1863), Napolean B. (1837-1912), Mary (born c1839) and Amelia (1844-1918, wife of William Henry Thomas). A cemetery known as the Pine Hill Cemetery where a number of Howards are buried, located on Highway 42 between Sperton and Delta, was opened in 1894 on land provided by Napolean B. Howard. One of this cemetery's mounmentts may serve as a final note of the considerable number of medical doctors who were among the nenteenth century descendants of the Leeds County pioneer legislator and medical practitioner Peter Howard. Its a Peter T. Howard family monument of the 1890's, which is inscribed as been erected by Feonora Howard, M.D., whenof Tientsin, China.

(This account is provided as brief revised version of Mrs. Brown's earlier notes titled HOWARD REFORMERS OF LEEDS COUNTY and THE MATTHEW HOWARD FAMILY, A PRELIMINARY LISTING, copies of which are available in the Ottawa Branch Library. Main sources have been land pettitions, census rolls, registry office data found by Frances C. Judson of Brockville, legislative assembly journals, cemetery inscriptions recordings, farm directories and Brockville, newspapers.

"From the Brockville Recorder and Times-Correspondence

Dr. Howard's Ancestry

Editor, Recorder and Times:

Sir,-I have read with interest in your paper and others, various accounts of the noble life and works of the late Dr. Leonara Howard King, who died recently in China.

When she last visited the homeland, I had the pleasurer of meeting and visiting with her at some length. One could scarcely fail to be impressed with her personality and a character beautified by a life of earnest endeavor.

From an interest I have in her and her family, I wish to take issue with her biographer of July 9th (Recorder and Times) who in his zeal to extol her excellencies made a serious faux pas. I refer to the statement She came of a comparatively inconspicuous family, etc.

To one who prided her self in her ancestry as she did, such a statement would scarcely be considered fitting. From my knowledge of the ancestry of this lady, as well as other prominent families in Canada, I am prepared to speak with authority. So far as her immidate family is concerned, it was inconspicuous as most good people were at that time. Nothing but porch-climbers and military officals were conspicuous in those days.

Her family descended from English nobility on her father's side, which cannot be questioned as an examination of heraldic records will show. There is a history of her family from the year 1342 down to her grandfather Dr. Peter Howard. Her great grandfather held a baronetcy to which her grandfather, Dr. Peter Howard, and her father were legitimate successors, which in America they never tried to establish, although Sir John Colborne in a letter to her father expressed a wish to negotiate the claim...."

Gilbert L. Howard was born in Washburn, Ill., January 15, 1858, and died in Tobias, Neb., 4, 1903 at age of 44 years 11 months and 19 days. At the age of 18 years he professed faith in Christ and united with the Baptist church of Chenoa, Ill. In 1883 he was united in marriage to Frances M. Hayes, daughter of L. C. Hays of Chenoa, Ill. Two children were born to them, Jessie June and Luther A. In 1891 Mr. Howard and Family moved to Ohiowa, Neb., at which place he lived nine years, being engaged in the lumber business. The past three years he was in the same business at Byron, Neb. He was an industrious and successful business man, a loving father and devoted husband. His high Christian character was recognized by all. In testimoney of this, one He lived one of the cleanest and purest lives of any man I ever knew, and if any one ever left this world for a better one, he surely did. Deceased was aafflicted with that dread malady, diabetes. He fully realized that no medical skill could cure him, yet he never complained nor murmered, always trusting in The Great Physician who health all our diseases, and Who loves us even while he chastens us. Mr. Howard leaves to mourn his loss, a widow and two children, Jessie June and Luther, an aged mother, Mrs. E. Howard, and one brother, B. D. Howard, with whom he spent the closing weeks of his life, and at whose home the funeral services were conducted Wednesday at 10 a.m., by Rev. Amos Weaver, pastor of the Baptist church Tobias; text II Corinthians 1-3-7. Scripture reading, a part of the fourteenth chapter of St. John.

The bereaved family wish to express their sincere graditude to the many friends who assisted in the last sad rites of their loved one."

AGATHA D. PIELSTICK

Agatha Dlla Howard was born in Fairbury, Illinois May 11, 1864, the eldest child of Rebbecca and Bradford Howard. While still very young, she moved with her parents to Washburn, Illinois. It was there that she confessed her faith in Christ and at the early age of eight years was baptized and united in the Baptist church. Through the years she has remained faithful to her belief and found courage and strength to help her face life---with all its obstacles---cheerfully and enthusiatsically.

Following the trend of the day to-Go West-the family migrated to Southern Nebraska when Agatha was a young lady. Here in the year 1881 she was united in marriage to George J. Pielstick. They established their home in Fairfield, Nebraska, where Mr. Pielstick was in business. To this union were born eight children, Charles, Bertha, Luhu, Saidie, Della, Sidney, Howard and Russell. Seven grew to adulthood, Bertha having died in infancy.

Upon the death of her husband in 1904, Mrs. Pielstick was left to rear here family by herself. In 1910 with pioneering spirt still prevalent she came to Wyoming and took up a homestead south of Jireh. Since that time, with the exception of a few years spent with her children in different places she has made her home her. In 1932 her son Charles came from Omaha, Nebraska, to take up residence with her mother. For a number of years dueing the expansion of the Lance Creek oil fields she clerked in [page 10] Manorgan's store and later owned and operated her own millnery and dress making shop.

Suffering from a paralytic stroke which occured about seven years ago she was forced to give up many activities that she enjoyed so much, but regardless of the handicap she lived zealously, always hoping for a complete recovery. Last fall she was threatened with pneumonia and was moved to Lusk where she could be under the doctor's care. Although she recovered from this attack , she never gained sufficient strength to return home. During the past month she gradually became weaker until the end came a 9:30 p.m. June 19th, having attained the age of 83 years, 1 month and 8 days.

It can be said of her that she was never known to complain of her portion; she never lost interest in people; she was keenly aware of her surroundings; and inspite of her years and her suffering she mentally aler. Her sweet disposition and unselfish nature endeared her to many people.

She leaves to mourn her passing four sons, Charles H. of Manville, Sindney of Washington, D.C.; Howard of Hollywood, Calif.; and Russell of Omaha, Nebr.; and one daughter Mrs. Neil Hart of Hollywood, Calif. Two other daughters Della and Sedie, preceeded her in death. She also leaves a sister Mrs. Jennie Baughn and a brother, Harry D. Howard, both Manville, Wyoming; seven grandchildren, and one great grandchild, besides many other relatives and friends."

"Harry Howard Services Held In Manville Sat.

Funeral services for Harry D. Howard, 90, long-time resident of Manville, were held Saturday at 2:00 p. m, from the Manville Community Church with J. Wesley Libb officating. Burial was in the Manville Cemetery.

Mr. Howard died at his home in Manville suddenly last Wednesday morning. He had not previously been ill.

The Rev. Ed Poser and Mrs. J. W. Libb sang Sweet Will of God and It Is Well With My Soul. They were accompanied with Mrs. Con Showalter.

Pallbearers were: Louis Bowen, Al Knudsen, Alvin Alexander, Paul Sullivan, Art Rathbun and Marion Rasmussen.

Honorary pallbearers were: Walter Vanhorn, Lee Stoddard, Orville Dryer and Zeb Ward.

Harry Delos Howard was at Chenoa, Ill December 31, 1873 the son of Bradford and Rebecca Howard. At an early age he moved with his parents to Nebraska where he grew to manhood. September 18, 1901 he and Miss Neletta Elida Pettet were married at her home in Chicago. They made their home in Lusk following the wedding and lived here until 1904 when they moved back to Nebraska, first to Fairfield and later to Atkinson.

In 1918 the family returned Wyoming and have lived at Manville since that time. As a young man he joined the Baptist Church and at time of his death was a member of the Manville Community Church. For a number of years he taught music and directed choirs in addition to operating his jewelry business. He kept constantly at work at his trade until a few days before his death. His favorite pastime was playing checkers and his subtle humor and his gentle nature made him a favorite in the community.

He is survived by his wife, Neletta, three daughters, Mrs. Murrin Keenan of Pine Bluffs, Mrs. Emma Richardson of Manville and Mrs. A. F. DeCastro of Lusk; two sons, Ross Howard of Cheyenne and Robert Howard of Redlands, Calif.; 13 grandchildren and one-great-grandchild."

Obit from Lusk Herald, Lusk, WY, written by Aunt Edna. Also, I was feeling quite ill prior to grandpa's death, so dad [Ross] and I returned to Cheyenne. Grandpa, passed away ten minutes after we left Manville.

I once asked dad [Ross] how grandpa [Harry] met Neletta. Harry was sitting on the porch of his parents home in Tobias, Nebraska, when a young and quite young school teacher approached Bradford and Rebecca's front porch, unbeknown to Harry, this young school teacher was renting a room at his parents home. From that moment true love started and ended with 63 plus years of marriage.

I once asked dad how he met mom? He was in his father's jewelry shop, when grandpa looked up and said Ross why don't you give Miss Keimig a ride home. Dad did and like his parents true romance lasted with 57 years of marriage, after the courtship of 2 years. Of course mother tells it differently. MSH

"September 1932.

I had gone durning the early eveningto the Howard's house to pay Mr. Howard for the violin which I had bought earlier in the year the final payment. As I walked back on the graveled street I was just passing the church when a car came from the opposite direction. It slowed down. stopped and I recognized Emma who called out a greeting and then introduced me to the young man who was driving, her brother Ross whom I had heard of but never saw before.

Then I started out again on my way to the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Lee.

I had gone only a half block or so when the pickup was there beside me, and Ross jumped out to offer me a ride home. It was only a little more than a block away, but I accepted the offer, and it wasn't long after that encounter that the same car was appearing quite offen at the Lee's Home."

OBITUARY.

Gilbert L. Howard was born in Washburn, Ill., January 15, 1858, and died in Tobias, Neb., 4, 1903 at age of 44 years 11 months and 19 days. At the age of 18 years he professed faith in Christ and united with the Baptist church of Chenoa, Ill. In 1883 he was united in marriage to Frances M. Hayes, daughter of L. C. Hays of Chenoa, Ill. Two children were born to them, Jessie June and Luther A. In 1891 Mr. Howard and Family moved to Ohiowa, Neb., at which place he lived nine years, being engaged in the lumber business. The past three years he was in the same business at Byron, Neb. He was an industrious and successful business man, a loving father and devoted husband. His high Christian character was recognized by all. In testimoney of this, one He lived one of the cleanest and purest lives of any man I ever knew, and if any one ever left this world for a better one, he surely did. Deceased was aafflicted with that dread malady, diabetes. He fully realized that no medical skill could cure him, yet he never complained nor murmered, always trusting in The Great Physician who health all our diseases, and Who loves us even while he chastens us. Mr. Howard leaves to mourn his loss, a widow and two children, Jessie June and Luther, an aged mother, Mrs. E. Howard, and one brother, B. D. Howard, with whom he spent the closing weeks of his life, and at whose home the funeral services were conducted Wednesday at 10 a.m., by Rev. Amos Weaver, pastor of the Baptist church Tobias; text II Corinthians 1-3-7. Scripture reading, a part of the fourteenth chapter of St. John.

The bereaved family wish to express their sincere graditude to the many friends who assisted in the last sad rites of their loved one."

AGATHA D. PIELSTICK

Agatha Dlla Howard was born in Fairbury, Illinois May 11, 1864, the eldest child of Rebbecca and Bradford Howard. While still very young, she moved with her parents to Washburn, Illinois. It was there that she confessed her faith in Christ and at the early age of eight years was baptized and united in the Baptist church. Through the years she has remained faithful to her belief and found courage and strength to help her face life---with all its obstacles---cheerfully and enthusiatsically.

Following the trend of the day to-Go West-the family migrated to Southern Nebraska when Agatha was a young lady. Here in the year 1881 she was united in marriage to George J. Pielstick. They established their home in Fairfield, Nebraska, where Mr. Pielstick was in business. To this union were born eight children, Charles, Bertha, Luhu, Saidie, Della, Sidney, Howard and Russell. Seven grew to adulthood, Bertha having died in infancy.

Upon the death of her husband in 1904, Mrs. Pielstick was left to rear here family by herself. In 1910 with pioneering spirt still prevalent she came to Wyoming and took up a homestead south of Jireh. Since that time, with the exception of a few years spent with her children in different places she has made her home her. In 1932 her son Charles came from Omaha, Nebraska, to take up residence with her mother. For a number of years dueing the expansion of the Lance Creek oil fields she clerked in

Suffering from a paralytic stroke which occured about seven years ago she was forced to give up many activities that she enjoyed so much, but regardless of the handicap she lived zealously, always hoping for a complete recovery. Last fall she was threatened with pneumonia and was moved to Lusk where she could be under the doctor's care. Although she recovered from this attack , she never gained sufficient strength to return home. During the past month she gradually became weaker until the end came a 9:30 p.m. June 19th, having attained the age of 83 years, 1 month and 8 days.

It can be said of her that she was never known to complain of her portion; she never lost interest in people; she was keenly aware of her surroundings; and inspite of her years and her suffering she mentally aler. Her sweet disposition and unselfish nature endeared her to many people.

She leaves to mourn her passing four sons, Charles H. of Manville, Sindney of Washington, D.C.; Howard of Hollywood, Calif.; and Russell of Omaha, Nebr.; and one daughter Mrs. Neil Hart of Hollywood, Calif. Two other daughters Della and Sedie, preceeded her in death. She also leaves a sister Mrs. Jennie Baughn and a brother, Harry D. Howard, both Manville, Wyoming; seven grandchildren, and one great grandchild, besides many other relatives and friends."

"Harry Howard Services Held In Manville Sat.

Funeral services for Harry D. Howard, 90, long-time resident of Manville, were held Saturday at 2:00 p. m, from the Manville Community Church with J. Wesley Libb officating. Burial was in the Manville Cemetery.

Mr. Howard died at his home in Manville suddenly last Wednesday morning. He had not previously been ill.

The Rev. Ed Poser and Mrs. J. W. Libb sang Sweet Will of God and It Is Well With My Soul. They were accompanied with Mrs. Con Showalter.

Pallbearers were: Louis Bowen, Al Knudsen, Alvin Alexander, Paul Sullivan, Art Rathbun and Marion Rasmussen.

Honorary pallbearers were: Walter Vanhorn, Lee Stoddard, Orville Dryer and Zeb Ward.

Harry Delos Howard was at Chenoa, Ill December 31, 1873 the son of Bradford and Rebecca Howard. At an early age he moved with his parents to Nebraska where he grew to manhood. September 18, 1901 he and Miss Neletta Elida Pettet were married at her home in Chicago. They made their home in Lusk following the wedding and lived here until 1904 when they moved back to Nebraska, first to Fairfield and later to Atkinson.

In 1918 the family returned Wyoming and have lived at Manville since that time. As a young man he joined the Baptist Church and at time of his death was a member of the Manville Community Church. For a number of years he taught music and directed choirs in addition to operating his jewelry business. He kept constantly at work at his trade until a few days before his death. His favorite pastime was playing checkers and his subtle humor and his gentle nature made him a favorite in the community.

He is survived by his wife, Neletta, three daughters, Mrs. Murrin Keenan of Pine Bluffs, Mrs. Emma Richardson of Manville and Mrs. A. F. DeCastro of Lusk; two sons, Ross Howard of Cheyenne and Robert Howard of Redlands, Calif.; 13 grandchildren and one-great-grandchild."

Obit from Lusk Herald, Lusk, WY, written by Aunt Edna. Also, I was feeling quite ill prior to grandpa's death, so dad [Ross] and I returned to Cheyenne. Grandpa, passed away ten minutes after we left Manville.

I once asked dad [Ross] how grandpa [Harry] met Neletta. Harry was sitting on the porch of his parents home in Tobias, Nebraska, when a young and quite young school teacher approached Bradford and Rebecca's front porch, unbeknown to Harry, this young school teacher was renting a room at his parents home. From that moment true love started and ended with 63 plus years of marriage.

"September 1932.

I had gone durning the early eveningto the Howard's house to pay Mr. Howard for the violin which I had bought earlier in the year the final payment. As I walked back on the graveled street I was just passing the church when a car came from the opposite direction. It slowed down. stopped and I recognized Emma who called out a greeting and then introduced me to the young man who was driving, her brother Ross whom I had heard of but never saw before.

Then I started out again on my way to the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Lee.

I had gone only a half block or so when the pickup was there beside me, and Ross jumped out to offer me a ride home. It was only a little more than a block away, but I accepted the offer, and it wasn't long after that encounter that the same car was appearing quite offen at the Lee's Home."

NSSAR SUPPLEMENTAL for Marshall Sterling Howard #120644

ELIZABETH married PETTET ISAAC son of PETITT OR PETTET SAMUEL on 20 Mar 1804 in Vernonville, Ontario, Canada. ISAAC was born on 10 May 1780. He died in 1831 in Vernonville, Ontario, Canada.

One of Issac's son's was not certain how his father spelled the last name, but thought it was Pettit and another brother thought it was Pettet, so the name split.

Our Cousin, John S. Wurt, gives ou rshared Emmigrant Great 11th? Grandfather Thomas as Pettit. Which I would have to agree.

JOSEPH married WAIT AMANDA daughter of WAIT SISSON on 13 Jan 1833 in Vernonville, Ontario, Canada. AMANDA was born on 23 Dec 1813 in Vernonville, Ontario, Canada. She died on 19 Mar 1906 in Haldimand Township, Northumberland, Ontario, Canada.

In my 30 plus years of indepth research to prove Sisson Wait's lineage, father of Amanda, I've come to believe we need to home in on Samuel Wait Carter and Samuel Wait as the ancestors of our Sisson.

Early in 2000, while researching the Ontario and Haldimand Township legal records, I stumbled upon Samuel Wait Carter, underneath Samuel Wait one or two spaces above or below Sisson Wait, which leaves me to believe that Samuel Wait of Rhode Island, belongs to us.

Why the name Carter? Please keep in mind legal facts surrounding our relative President William Howard Taft. Due to a serious argument or disagreement with his father William decided then and there to take his mother's maiden name, as his last name. Therefore, I conclude from this, we know the mother's maiden name for Samuel Wait, Sr., being Carter and either Samuel, Jr. is Sisson's brother or father. I tend to believe Samuel Jr. is his brother.

Respectfully,
Marshall Sterling Howard

NELETTA married HOWARD HARRY DELOS son of HOWARD BRADFORD DELOS and TOY REBECCA DOOLING on 18 Sep 1901 in Englewood, Cook County, Illinois. HARRY was born on 31 Dec 1873 in Cheno, McLean County, Illinois. He died on 26 Aug 1964 in At home, Manville, Niobrara County, Wyoming. He was buried in Dellview Cemetery, Manville, Niobrara County, Wyoming.

"Harry Howard Services Held In Manville Sat.

Funeral services for Harry D. Howard, 90, long-time resident of Manville, were held Saturday at 2:00 p. m, from the Manville Community Church with J. Wesley Libb officating. Burial was in the Manville Cemetery.

Mr. Howard died at his home in Manville suddenly last Wednesday morning. He had not previously been ill.

The Rev. Ed Poser and Mrs. J. W. Libb sang Sweet Will of God and It Is Well With My Soul. They were accompanied with Mrs. Con Showalter.

Pallbearers were: Louis Bowen, Al Knudsen, Alvin Alexander, Paul Sullivan, Art Rathbun and Marion Rasmussen.

Honorary pallbearers were: Walter Vanhorn, Lee Stoddard, Orville Dryer and Zeb Ward.

Harry Delos Howard was at Chenoa, Ill December 31, 1873 the son of Bradford and Rebecca Howard. At an early age he moved with his parents to Nebraska where he grew to manhood. September 18, 1901 he and Miss Neletta Elida Pettet were married at her home in Chicago. They made their home in Lusk following the wedding and lived here until 1904 when they moved back to Nebraska, first to Fairfield and later to Atkinson.

In 1918 the family returned Wyoming and have lived at Manville since that time. As a young man he joined the Baptist Church and at time of his death was a member of the Manville Community Church. For a number of years he taught music and directed choirs in addition to operating his jewelry business. He kept constantly at work at his trade until a few days before his death. His favorite pastime was playing checkers and his subtle humor and his gentle nature made him a favorite in the community.

He is survived by his wife, Neletta, three daughters, Mrs. Murrin Keenan of Pine Bluffs, Mrs. Emma Richardson of Manville and Mrs. A. F. DeCastro of Lusk; two sons, Ross Howard of Cheyenne and Robert Howard of Redlands, Calif.; 13 grandchildren and one-great-grandchild."

Obit from Lusk Herald, Lusk, WY, written by Aunt Edna. Also, I was feeling quite ill prior to grandpa's death, so dad [Ross] and I returned to Cheyenne. Grandpa, passed away ten minutes after we left Manville.

I once asked dad [Ross] how grandpa [Harry] met Neletta. Harry was sitting on the porch of his parents home in Tobias, Nebraska, when a young and quite young school teacher approached Bradford and Rebecca's front porch, unbeknown to Harry, this young school teacher was renting a room at his parents home. From that moment true love started and ended with 63 plus years of marriage.

> "September 1932.
> I had gone durning the early eveningto the Howard's house to pay Mr. Howard for the violin which I had bought earlier in the year the final payment. As I walked back on the graveled street I was just passing the church when a car came from the opposite direction. It slowed down. stopped and I recognized Emma who called out a greeting and then introduced me to the young man who was driving, her brother Ross whom I had heard of but never saw before.
> Then I started out again on my way to the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Lee.

I had gone only a half block or so when the pickup was there beside me, and Ross jumped out to offer me a ride home. It was only a little more than a block away, but I accepted the offer, and it wasn't long after that encounter that the same car was appearing quite offen at the Lee's Home."

In my 30 plus years of indepth research to prove Sisson Wait's lineage, father of Amanda, I've come to believe we need to home in on Samuel Wait Carter and Samuel Wait as the ancestors of our Sisson.

Early in 2000, while researching the Ontario and Haldimand Township legal records, I stumbled upon Samuel Wait Carter, underneath Samuel Wait one or two spaces above or below Sisson Wait, which leaves me to believe that Samuel Wait of Rhode Island, belongs to us.

Why the name Carter? Please keep in mind legal facts surrounding our relative President William Howard Taft. Due to a serious argument or disagreement with his father William decided then and there to take his mother's maiden name, as his last name. Therefore, I conclude from this, we know the mother's maiden name for Samuel Wait, Sr., being Carter and either Samuel, Jr. is Sisson's brother or father. I tend to believe Samuel Jr. is his brother.

Respectfully,
Marshall Sterling Howard

"Harry Howard Services Held In Manville Sat.

Funeral services for Harry D. Howard, 90, long-time resident of Manville, were held Saturday at 2:00 p. m, from the Manville Community Church with J. Wesley Libb officating. Burial was in the Manville Cemetery.

Mr. Howard died at his home in Manville suddenly last Wednesday morning. He had not previously been ill.

The Rev. Ed Poser and Mrs. J. W. Libb sang Sweet Will of God and It Is Well With My Soul. They were accompanied with Mrs. Con Showalter.

Pallbearers were: Louis Bowen, Al Knudsen, Alvin Alexander, Paul Sullivan, Art Rathbun and Marion Rasmussen.

Honorary pallbearers were: Walter Vanhorn, Lee Stoddard, Orville Dryer and Zeb Ward.

Harry Delos Howard was at Chenoa, Ill December 31, 1873 the son of Bradford and Rebecca Howard. At an early age he moved with his parents to Nebraska where he grew to manhood. September 18, 1901 he and Miss Neletta Elida Pettet were married at her home in Chicago. They made their home in Lusk following the wedding and lived here until 1904 when they moved back to Nebraska, first to Fairfield and later to Atkinson.

In 1918 the family returned Wyoming and have lived at Manville since that time. As a young man he joined the Baptist Church and at time of his death was a member of the Manville Community Church. For a number of years he taught music and directed choirs in addition to operating his jewelry business. He kept constantly at work at his trade until a few days before his death. His favorite pastime was playing checkers and his subtle humor and his gentle nature made him a favorite in the community.

He is survived by his wife, Neletta, three daughters, Mrs. Murrin Keenan of Pine Bluffs, Mrs. Emma Richardson of Manville and Mrs. A. F. DeCastro of Lusk; two sons, Ross Howard of Cheyenne and Robert Howard of Redlands, Calif.; 13 grandchildren and one-great-grandchild."

Obit from Lusk Herald, Lusk, WY, written by Aunt Edna. Also, I was feeling quite ill prior to grandpa's death, so dad [Ross] and I returned to Cheyenne. Grandpa, passed away ten minutes after we left Manville.

I once asked dad [Ross] how grandpa [Harry] met Neletta. Harry was sitting on the porch of his parents home in Tobias, Nebraska, when a young and quite young school teacher approached Bradford and Rebecca's front porch, unbeknown to Harry, this young school teacher was renting a room at his parents home. From that moment true love started and ended with 63 plus years of marriage.

> "September 1932.
> I had gone durning the early eveningto the Howard's house to pay Mr. Howard for the violin which I had bought earlier in the year the final payment. As I walked back on the graveled street I was just passing the church when a car came from the opposite direction. It slowed down. stopped and I recognized Emma who called out a greeting and then introduced me to the young man who was driving, her brother Ross whom I had heard of but never saw before.

M

Then I started out again on my way to the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Lee.

I had gone only a half block or so when the pickup was there beside me, and Ross jumped out to offer me a ride home. It was only a little more than a block away, but I accepted the offer, and it wasn't long after that encounter that the same car was appearing quite offen at the Lee's Home."

    In my 30 plus years of indepth research to prove Sisson Wait's lineage, father of Amanda, I've come to believe we need to home in on Samuel Wait Carter and Samuel Wait as the ancestors of our Sisson.

    Early in 2000, while researching the Ontario and Haldimand Township legal records, I stumbled upon Samuel Wait Carter, underneath Samuel Wait one or two spaces above or below Sisson Wait, which leaves me to believe that Samuel Wait of Rhode Island, belongs to us.

    Why the name Carter? Please keep in mind legal facts surrounding our relative President William Howard Taft. Due to a serious argument or disagreement with his father William decided then and there to take his mother's maiden name, as his last name. Therefore, I conclude from this, we know the mother's maiden name for Samuel Wait, Sr., being Carter and either Samuel, Jr. is Sisson's brother or father. I tend to believe Samuel Jr. is his brother.

    Respectfully,
    Marshall Sterling Howard
